Born free,
As free as the wind blows,
As free as the grass grows,
Born free
To follow your heart.

Live free,
And beauty surrounds you,
The world still astounds you,
Each time you look at a star.

Stay free,
Where no walls divide you,
You're free as a roaring tide,
So there's no need to hide.

Born free,
And life is worth living,
But only worth living,
Cause you're born free.

Mitchell Offers Academic Freedom To Students

Mitchell College is . . .

an institution of higher learning where personal contact is readily available;
the opportunity to obtain knowledge;
part of the experience of life;
the cornerstone for the realization of your goals.

Your stay at Mitchell is the opportunity to have a close correlation with the world, and ". . . You're free as a roaring tide . . ."

The memories of Mitchell will no doubt help you keep your objectives, even though you may be disillusioned by obstacles.

Library Aids In Students' Acquisition of Knowledge

With the new library at our convenience, Mitchell College can better serve the students in the learning process. Our aspirations can never be quenched, but our experiences on the road of knowledge can best be met by diligent searching for the solutions, and security can be obtained by grasping the knowledge at hand.

"... The world still astounds you,
Each time you look at a star ..."

Personal Ties Become Stronger

The size of Mitchell permits the students to have a greater and more rewarding relationship with one another. The social life at Mitchell centers around the students who may be brought closer together through clubs, social functions, and group discussions.

The Student Union serves as the core of student life; it is the physical plant for the student's use. However, the buildings mean nothing unless there is a flourishing sense of freedom.

There cannot be a liberation of the student until he invasions the total framework of the campus. A student is free,

"... As free as the wind blows,
As free as the grass grows . . ."

No Walls Divide the Campus and Community

The Community of Statesville is the support and foundation of Mitchell College. Through its generous contributions, it has enabled us to grow and is responsible for the progress that Mitchell College has made throughout the years. It has given each student the opportunity to widen his horizons and will continue to do so in the future.

We Pay Tribute to

Another change to the campus of Mitchell was the completion of a beautiful, new library which added a whole new aspect of learning to the student body. Many long hours of work went into completing the library so that students would be able to use its modern facilities when classes began last September. Details that had to be worked out by people who knew how to and where to fit every little thing where it belonged were the hardest part of shaping our library's facilities. Perhaps the person who has worked the hardest in preparing and preserving our library is the one who is seldom seen outside its portals — a person who will stop at nothing to see that each student has the needed materials to further and enrich his education. Not only does she fill the job of librarian at Mitchell, but she is also the mother of three lovely children and the wife of our Dean . . . We, of the 1968 CIRCLE staff, dedicate this thirty-eighth volume of the CIRCLE to Mrs. Marcia Bradshaw.

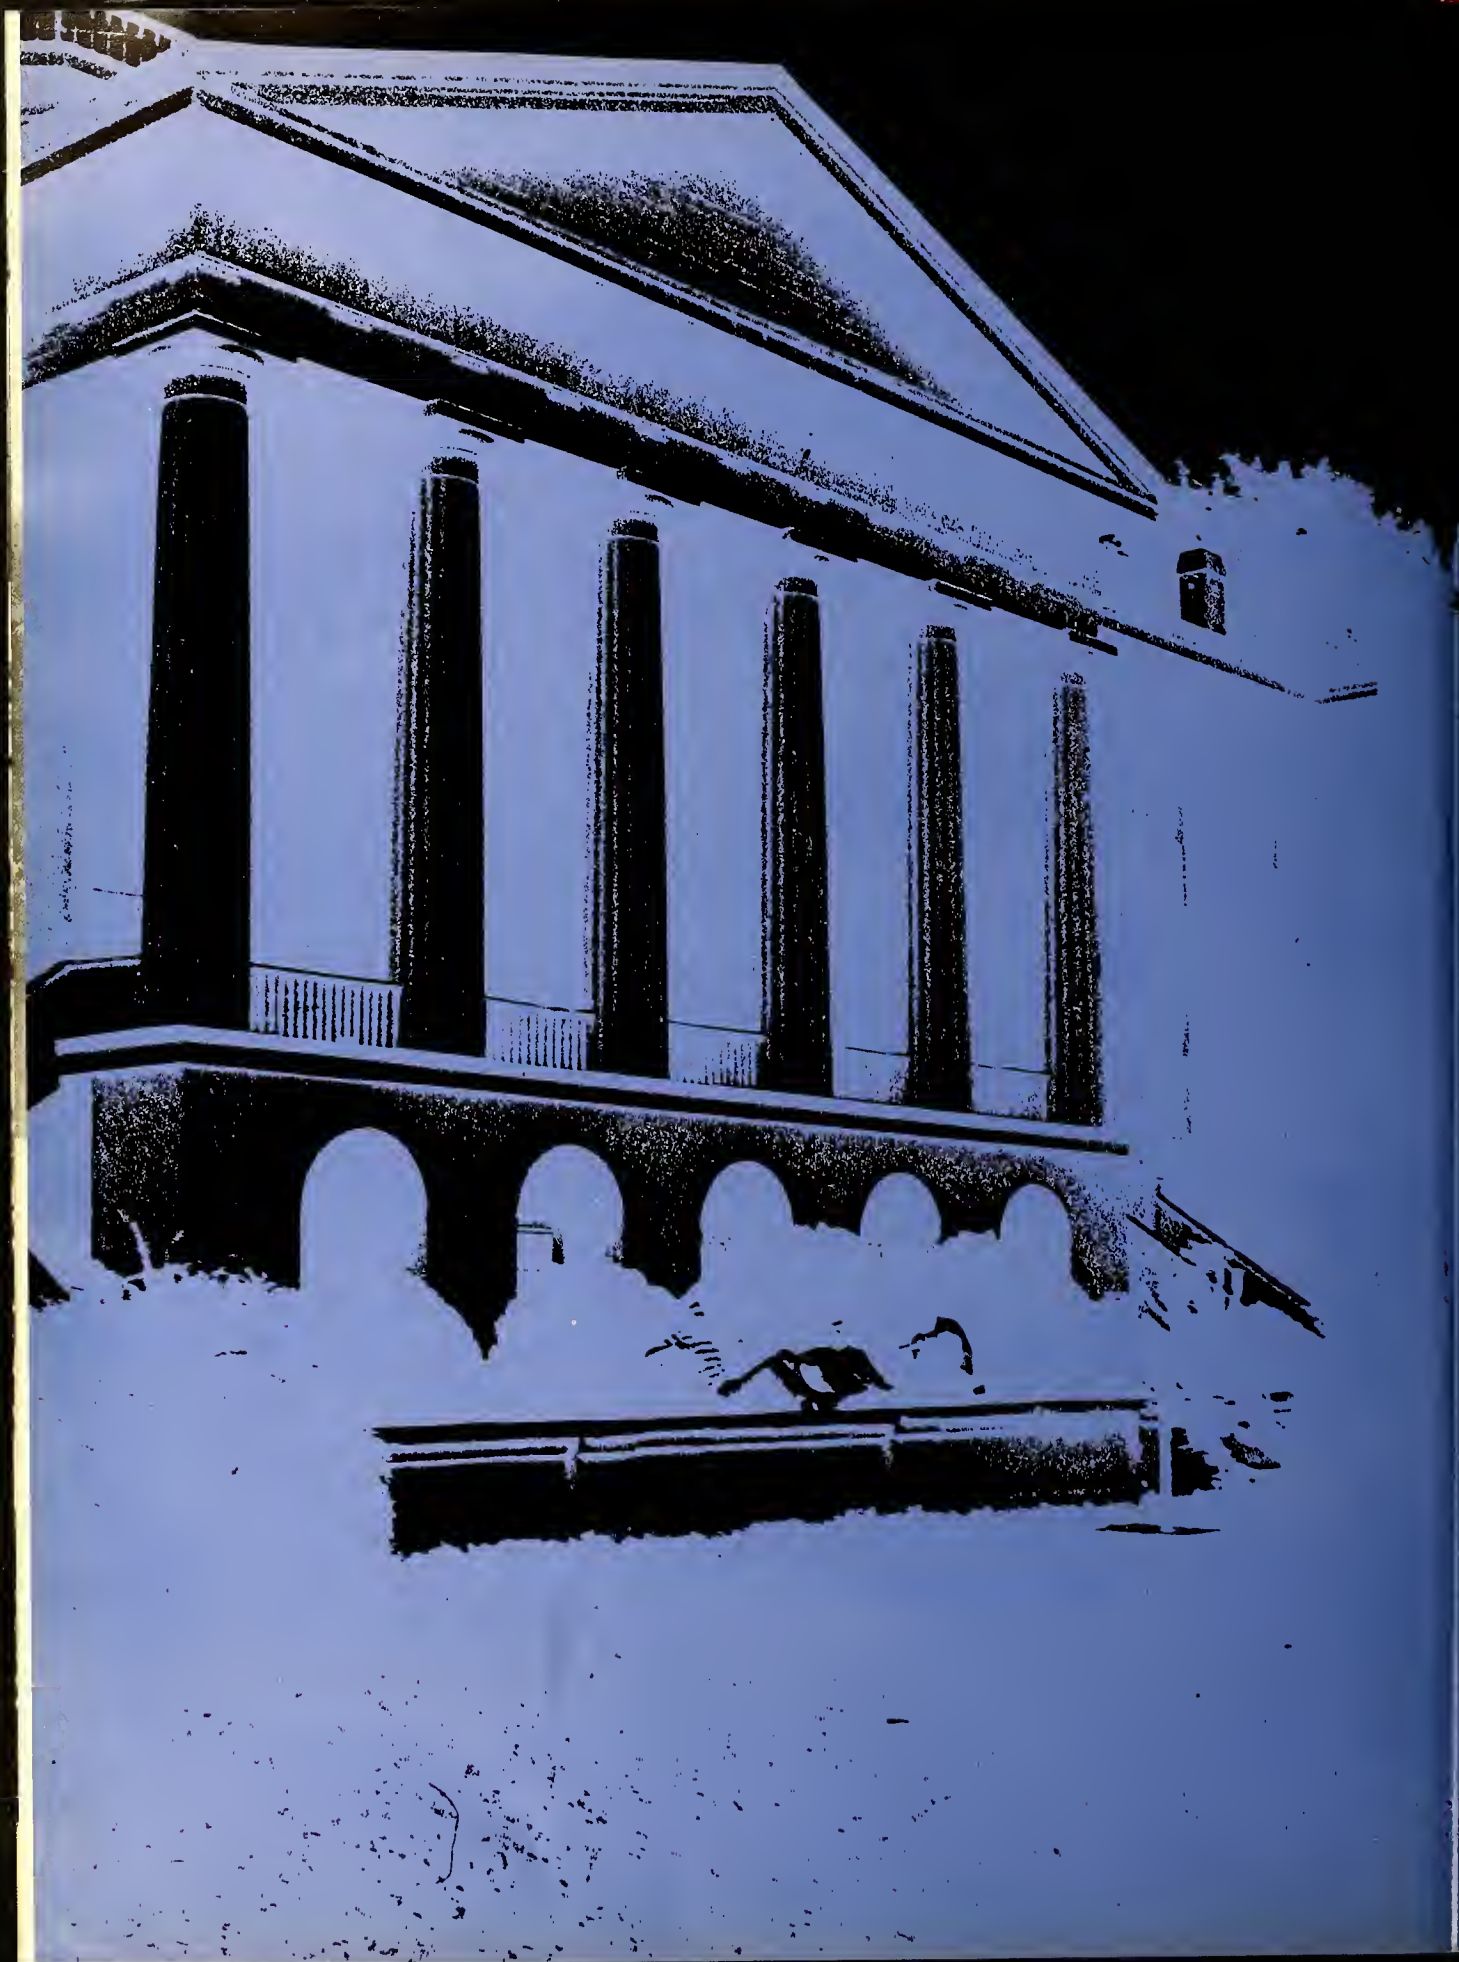

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bradshaw

A new year began with many new changes for Mitchell. Many new faces appeared on our campus and many old reappeared. In the middle of everything arose a man who was to become admired and loved by everyone he came in contact with. A smile graced his lips, and his heart carried a song wherever he went. When ever he could, he took time from his busy schedule to talk to anyone with a problem. He made his time and his friendship available to anyone who requested them. He appears to have dedicated his life to others, by his undying efforts to help them through and over their pitfalls in life. But his time was not to be limited to the problems that faced students — for he also has a position of great importance in the field of music, because he is the director of the college choir, as well as the Dean of Mitchell We, of the CIRCLE staff of 1968, dedicate this thirty-eighth volume of the CIRCLE to Mr. Kenneth Bradshaw.

Montgomerys Serve Mitchell College

The most respected couple on the Mitchell campus is President and Mrs. John Montgomery. Now in his twenty-first year as president of Mitchell, Mr. Montgomery has been responsible for the tremendous progress Mitchell has made in these two decades. As we know, behind every successful man is a woman, and the Montgomerys are no exception. Mrs. Montgomery has kept the Mitchell campus the best-looking in the southeast through her work in landscaping. But her talents lie not only in gardening, for Mrs. Montgomery is our epitome of the perfect hostess.

Mrs. Montgomery — a picture of poise and grace.

Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Dan Shoemaker discuss the completion of a campus beautification project.

Three Capable Leaders Head Mitchell College

Mr. Kenneth Bradshaw, who has served as Head of the Music Department for several years, is now in his first year as Dean of Students.

Mr. Donald E. Spencer is Director of Student Affairs at Mitchell, and is head of the Popular Arts Committee. He also serves as the Financial Advisor to the Circle.

Mr. James Storie, who is Director of Admissions, is kept busy with both new and old students, and is Advisor to the Circle K.

Miss Jean Neely serves as secretary to the recorder. She enjoys playing golf, bridge, and music.

Mrs. Martha Johnson serves as Secretary to Dean Bradshaw. During her more leisure hours, she finds time for sewing, needlework, reading, spectator sports and children. Mrs. Jane Chilton is the Secretary to the Director of Student Affairs. Mrs. Chilton delights in raising poodles, cooking, and enjoys all types of music. She is also Secretary to the Alumni Association. Mrs. Joann Overcash, fitting into the routine of her first year at Mitchell, serves as Secretary to Mr. Storie, the Director of Admissions.

Eight Hard-working Ladies Compose the Office Staff

Mrs. Phyllis Travis, when not painstakingly serving as the recorder, enjoys reading, painting and camping.

Miss Mary Edna Matheson, acting as the school Bursar, has been at Mitchell for ten years. When not working, she keeps herself occupied by playing bridge and reading. Mrs. Bird Williams, who functions as the necessary bookkeeper, delights in bridge and reading. Mrs. Brenda Leckie diligently serves as the school cashier. She has been at Mitchell for the past six years. During her spare time, her hobbies include reading and knitting.

Mrs. Marcia Bradshaw is our head librarian. She enjoys sewing when not helping the students in the new library.

Mrs. Hazel Waugh, a part-time librarian, enjoys sewing when not working.

Mrs. Barbara Stafford, the other part-time librarian, enjoys playing bridge, being with other people, and keeps busy raising her family.

Mrs. Dorothy G. Poole, our assistant librarian, aids the students in any way possible. She goes to classes at Mitchell in between her working hours. Her hobbies consist of golf, reading, and crocheting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson is another of the helpful librarians. When not working in the tape room, she finds time for knitting, skiing, bridge, and raising a big family.

Mrs. Faye Williams, the school dietitian, has practiced as a dietitian for twenty-four years. During her leisure time, she enjoys sewing, horseback riding, drawing, movies and dancing.

Two Indispensable Staffs at Mitchell College

Mrs. Betty Morphis, Assistant Supervisor of the Student Union, has been at Mitchell for four years. When not active keeping the Union in order, she finds time to chat and make friends with the students and enjoys bridge, horseback riding, swimming, and bowling.

Mr. Dan Shoemaker, as maintenance man, keeps Mitchell College looking its best at all times. He has been serving the school for twelve years. Mr. Charlie King, who has been at Mitchell for ten years, enjoys fishing and hunting when not doing odd jobs around the campus.

Miss Elizabeth Lee, M.M., has been at Mitchell for two years and teaches Advanced Music Theory and private piano lessons. Her spare time is devoted to her vocation in both music and piano.

Mitchell Presents Arts

Miss Sandra Telfer, M.M., is a new addition to the Mitchell College faculty. Miss Telfer teaches Music Theory, Survey of Music Literature, and Organ instructions. Her other interests lie in musical composition, a variety of sports, and, to complete her time, reading.

Mr. Kenneth Bradshaw, M.A., is in his first year as Dean of Students at Mitchell. In addition to his academic duties, he is director of the Mitchell College Choir.

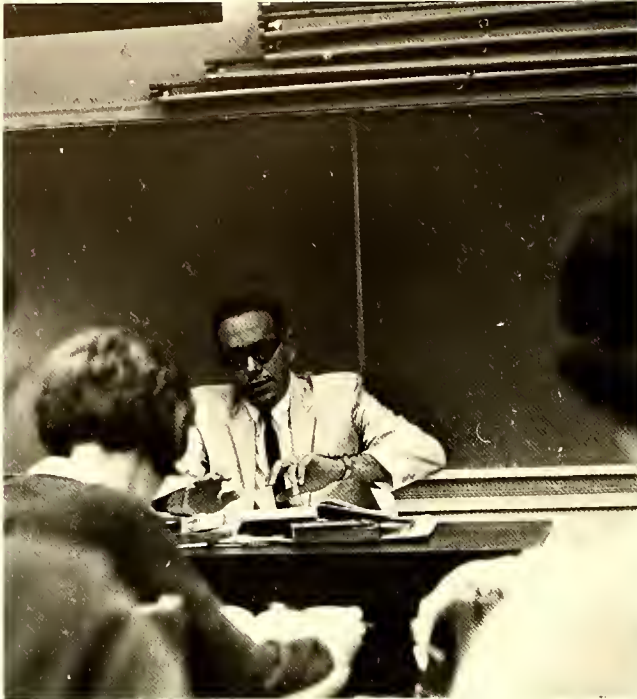

Mrs. Martha Bradner, M.M., gives many students in her Music Appreciation class an insight into the vast and varied background of the field of music. Mrs. Bradner dedicates her time to the stage in all types of drama and partakes yearly in summer stock. Horseback riding and tennis are also activities she enjoys.

Miss Louise Gilbert, B.A., has devoted her twenty-five years to teaching students such courses as Basic Art, Mechanical Drawing, and Painting at Mitchell. During her brief spare time, she follows her vocation of painting.

The Art Class is not limited to the indoors.

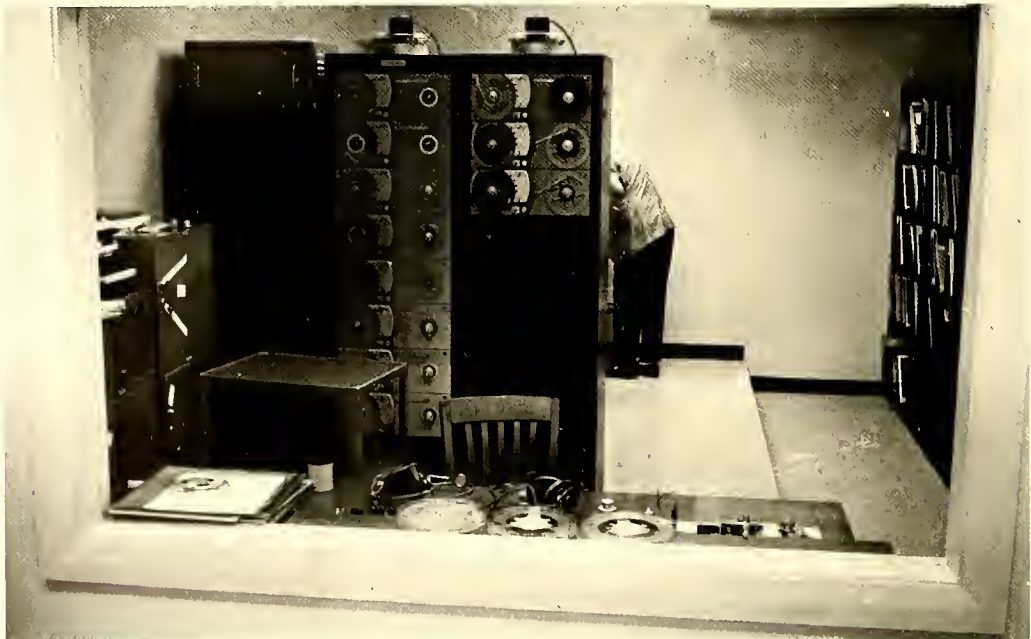

Mr. Richard Watson, M.A., is a new addition to our faculty this year. "Yo hablo y escribo español" is used rather frequently in his Elementary Spanish, Spanish Literature and Advanced Spanish Literature classes. Outside this Spanish environment, he claims that sports and his two daughters consume the rest of his time.

Mrs. Katherine Knox, M.A., has shared with her students her knowledge of the French language for thirty-nine years. She instructs the students in Elementary French, French Literature, and Advanced French Literature. She is interested in history, flowers, reading and traveling.

Listening Center Aids Language Department

The new Language Lab is a nice place for the students to spend their free time.

Miss Florence Andrews, M.Ed., gives her classes insight on the behavior patterns of the individual in her Psychology classes. Beyond the classroom, she takes a special interest in gardening, cooking and canning, the Little Theatre and travel, and finds helping the underprivileged gratifying.

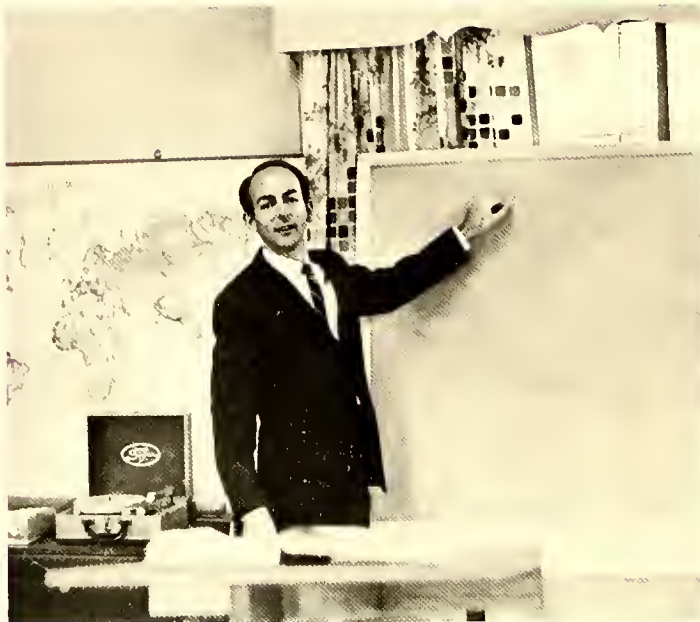

Miss Ruth Stevenson, B.A., rather than lecture to her students, lets them take the opportunity to speak in her Speech classes. Books and people hold her attention and her six years at Mitchell have occupied her time considerably.

Mitchell Welcomes New Chaplain

Dr. Richard Morgan, Th.D., Chaplain, touches each student at Mitchell every Tuesday morning by the inspiring words of his devotions. Lectures given by Dr. Morgan on the Old Testament, Church History, and Psychology are engrossed by each individual. Dr. Morgan enjoys any type of sports, but in particular, baseball.

Mr. John Young, M.A.Ed., guides his English students through the Scarlet Letter and his American Literature classes through many a famous author's work. Mr. Young has an interest in travel, autographs, postcards, and genealogy to occupy his time outside the classroom.

Mrs. Catherine Cline, M.A., now in her fourth year at Mitchell, devotes herself to Freshmen in her English Composition courses. Boating and swimming are Mrs. Cline's favorite interests.

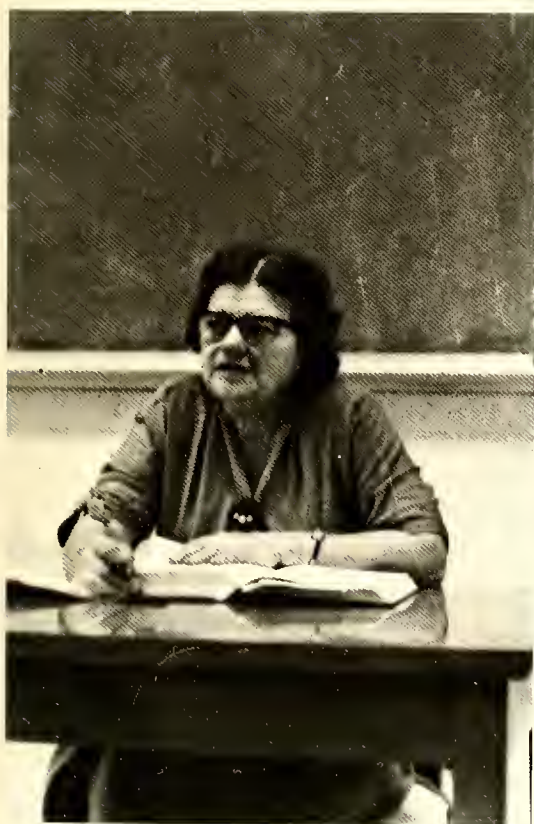

Mr. Jay Hall, M.A., leads his Freshman English students through the fundamentals of English Composition. He is known around campus as an authority on Thomas Wolfe, and in his spare time, he does a great amount of correspondence.

English Department : from Huckleberry to Hamlet

Miss Linney, M.A., as head of the English Department, helps her students to comprehend the History of English Literature. Writing finds a definite place in Miss Linney's free time.

Miss Mary Coley, M.A., is in her first year of teaching at Mitchell. She instructs Freshmen English and when not in the classroom, she can be seen walking around campus with her dog, Buck.

Mrs. Hall, M.A., has taught at Mitchell for three years. She teaches her students to master English Composition. Mrs. Hall states that her children take up most of her time off campus.

Mr. John Stine, M.A., hails Kansas City his home. History is any form or shape appeals to Mr. Stine as can be seen in his lectures in History of Civilization. Mr. Stine has been at Mitchell for three years, and states that reading, stein collecting, and the students have close control over his spare time.

Mr. Stephen Herman, M.A., turns through the centuries in both his U.S. History and History of Civilization classes. Antique collecting, painting, and being single occupy a vast majority of his time outside the realms of history.

Mr. Joseph Pickett, Ed.S., after his History of Civilization, U.S. History, and Government classes, spends his time with his two children and reading. This is Mr. Pickett's first year at Mitchell.

Mitchell Adds New Social Science Head

Mrs. Doris Pickett, Ed.S., has vastly different interests, ranging from teaching Economics to gardening and playing bridge. Mrs. Pickett is a new member of our faculty this year.

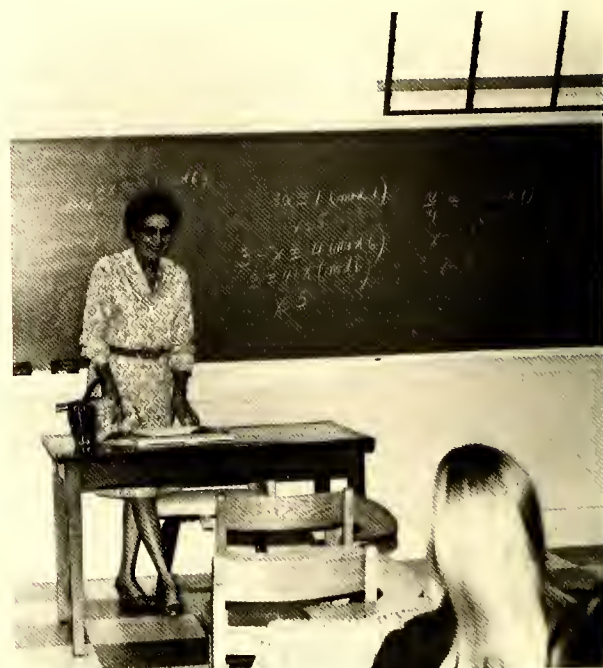

Mr. Oscar Stradley, M.A., in his fifth year, at Mitchell, tells the true story of the Civil War to each of his U.S. History classes. Raising horses and ponies fills Mr. Stradley's spare time. Reading and rock collecting also hold a special part of his time, plus his three Geography classes.

Mr. Louis Brown, M.A., the sole instructor of Sociology, has taught the students for eighteen years how to get along with each other. Landscaping, monograph research, photography, and stamps are the major interests of Mr. Brown.

Mr. Allen Tang, M.S., is in his first year of teaching Elementary Math and College Algebra at Mitchell. In his spare time, he enjoys bridge, listening to music, and touring around the country.

Mrs. Clara Tharpe, M.A., is kept busy between teaching math classes at the Senior High School and at Mitchell.

Mathematics Department Adds New Instructors

Mr. Lloyd Torrence, M.A., is a new member of the Mitchell faculty this year. He instructs an Elementary Math class and also Analytical Geometry and Calculus. Mr. Torrence stated that music occupies his free time from his vocations of numbers.

Mr. Jerry Hass, M.A., besides taking an enthusiastic interest in sky diving, devotes himself to the classroom of Biology. Mr. Hass has been at Mitchell for two years.

Mr. Sidney Sowers, M.A., having been on leave of absence, returned this year to instruct in the fields of Biology and Chemistry. Mr. Sowers' coined expression "troops" is known to all his students while dissecting or analyzing.

Mr. Charles Kelly, M.A., instructs his Biology classes on the true nature of the speci. Outside lab or lecture, Mr. Kelly participates in any type of sports, reading, and amusing his small daughter.

Follow the leader.

Miss Margaret Lane, M.Ed., has been teaching Beginning Typing, Advanced Shorthand, and Office Machines at Mitchell for twenty-four years. Her hobbies are reading and traveling.

Mr. Dennis Sloan, M.A., teaches Introduction to Business at Mitchell. His interests are in all sports and music.

Business Department Has a New Environment

Mrs. Carolyn Kelly, M.S., is in her third year of teaching Business Law and Introduction to Business Math. In her spare time, she likes to sew and go bicycling.

Mrs. Betty Sherrill, M.A., has already dedicated ten years of her life to teaching Typing, Shorthand, and Office Practice. When she is not busy, she finds time for reading and movies.

Miss Vancannon instructing her young, tender archers.

Mr. Marion Fairey, or "Coach", is interested in every aspect of sports. Having been at Mitchell for two years, Mr. Fairey has greatly contributed to our athletic department. Mr. Fairey holds a special emphasis on football, baseball, basketball, and golf.

Physical Education Department Expands

Miss Janice Vancannon, M.A.T., when not in red Mustang, teaches our girls the art of acquiring physical fitness. The promotion of intercollegiate sports among the women at Mitchell has won her acclaim from the students. Golf, tennis and cards are among Miss "V's" favorites.

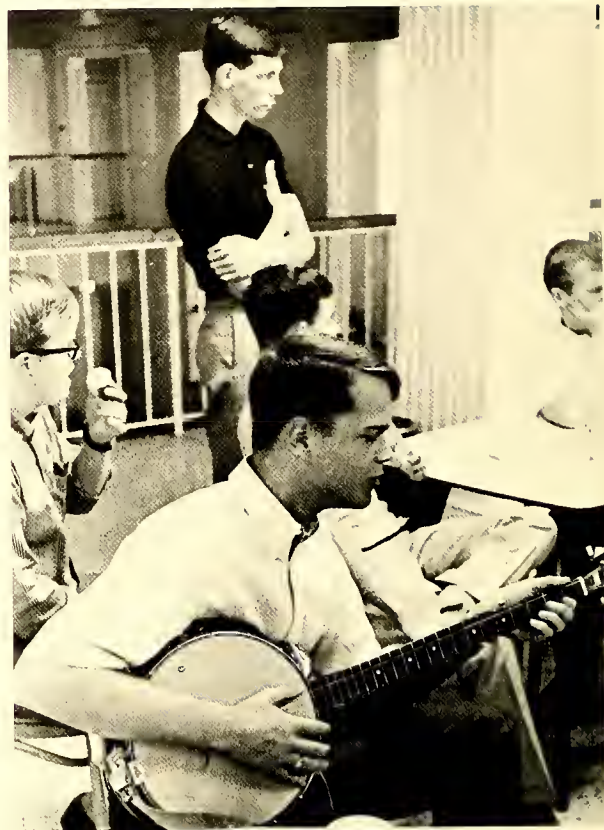

Coach Fairey and Ross discuss the outcome of the game.

Councils Govern College

Through the Student Government, Mitchell College students are given the opportunity to voice their opinion on matters related to student welfare. The Student Government Association, in addition to furnishing a forum for the expression of student opinion, provides opportunities for the development of responsible leadership and citizenship. This year's Student Council was led by Charles Hauser, president, Bill Brunson, vice-president, and Maria Vause, secretary-treasurer under the supervision of Mr. Oscar Stradley.

The Honor Council is Composed of three students elected by the student body. Two members were chosen in the spring, Terry Hartsell and Nancy Honeycutt, and a freshman, Robin Lowe was elected in the fall. The Honor Council supervises the application of the Honor Code and counts the ballots in all student elections.

Mary Alice Sherrill, layout editor, shows her staff, Bill Brunson, Danny Warren, Betty Griffin and Scarlett Morrison how to really mop up the work.

Circle Staff Always in Chaos

THE CIRCLE is published by a student editor and staff for the purpose of keeping alive the memories of Mitchell by the recalling of persons and activities of the year. This year's staff worked "long hours" to produce the annual.

The editor and business manager are elected by the student body each spring. Nan Holbrook, editor, directed fellow staff members in producing the annual this year with the help of Mrs. Catherine Cline, advisor. Loretta Murr, business manager, led the business staff in selling ads with the helpful aid of Colonel Don Spencer.

Campus Comments Informs Students

Mr. John Young, advisor of the college newspaper and Shari Loy, editor, take a few minutes out from journalism class to play tic-tat-toe!

The college newspaper is financed by the Student Council without the aid of advertisements. First issued in 1937 under its present name, CAMPUS COMMENTS, the paper is published monthly during the school year by the Journalism class. Students who do not take the course may be members of the staff.

This year's editor, Shari Loy and business manager, Bobbi Taylor were appointed by the advisor, Mr. John Young.

The "Circle K" is a service organization sponsored by the Statesville Kiwanis Club. It renders service to the school, community and the local Kiwanis Club. The members are chosen by their overall scholastic average, and their contribution to their fellow students.

This past summer four boys along with Mr. Jim Storie, adviser, went to the "Circle K" International Convention in Ottawa, Canada. The "Circle K" main project is the blood program for the Red Cross, but this year they compiled a student directory, distributed monthly calendars, and ushered at several college functions.

The "Circle K" planned a hayride, barbecue chicken picnic supper and dance for a week-end in April.

Fine Arts Provides Culture

The National Players presented "The Lute Song" in Mac Gray Auditorium.

The annual Fine Arts Series is designed to provide an opportunity for cultural enrichment. Outstanding lecturers and artists from various branches of the arts are brought in for evening appearances. Attendance at Fine Arts Programs is required of all full-time students.

This year's series included Nelson and Neal, an Australian-American Two Piano Team; Daniel Nagrin, a modern dancer; The North Carolina Symphony and The National Players. The choir presented Handel's Messiah and an operetta, "Yeomen of the Guard".

Nelson and Neal held the audience in the palms of their hands as their fingertips flew across the keyboard during their concert in Shearer Hall.

SHEARER MUSIC HALL

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1967

4:00 P. M.

Peter Nagrin captivated the audience with his modern dance routine, when he appeared at Mitchell in January.

The Towncriers presented an entertaining and amusing program of popular and folk music in Shearer Hall.

Warner, Porter and Warner expressed their warmth and friendliness to Mitchell through their folk singing and in return were received very warmly by the audience.

Popular Arts Provides Entertainment

Performances of popular artists and performers of varied types are presented several times during the year in the Popular Arts Series. The sole purpose of this series is the entertainment of the students. Attendance is optional.

This year the series included a modern folk group, Warner, Porter and Warner; The Towncriers, who perform popular and folk music; Josh White Jr., an outstanding folk singer; David, della Rosa and Brooks, a versatile singing group, and Hootenanny '68 which is presented May Day Week-End.

The Fantastic "Fantasticks"

The Mitchell Players under the direction of Mr. Stephen Herman and Mrs. Martha Bradner presented "The Mouse That Roared" and "The Fantasticks" this year in Shearer Hall.

"The Mouse That Roared" is a two-act comedy which satirizes the United States as "The Great White Father". "The Fantasticks" is a musical comedy which portrays the love story of a young couple.

Delta Psi Omega Initiates New Members

The Mitchell College Cast of Delta Psi Omega, Chapter Number 163, was installed on campus May, 1960, as a part of the national dramatics fraternity.

The honor of membership is bestowed upon students for their participation in dramatic activities by election to the chapter in accordance with the constitution and ritual of the national fraternity.

Phi Theta Kappa Sponsors Scholarship

Phi Theta Kappa is a National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, which was established at Mitchell in 1965. The local chapter is known by the Greek letters, Nu Tau. Qualifications for membership are a 3.3 cumulative grade point average for Freshmen and 3.0 grade point average for Sophomores.

This year the Phi Theta Kappa sponsored a bridge tournament in the spring for the students and faculty members.

Sigma Pi Alpha

Honors Language Students

The Mu Chapter of Sigma Pi Alpha, national honorary language fraternity, was organized in 1948 to honor students making a high scholastic average in language.

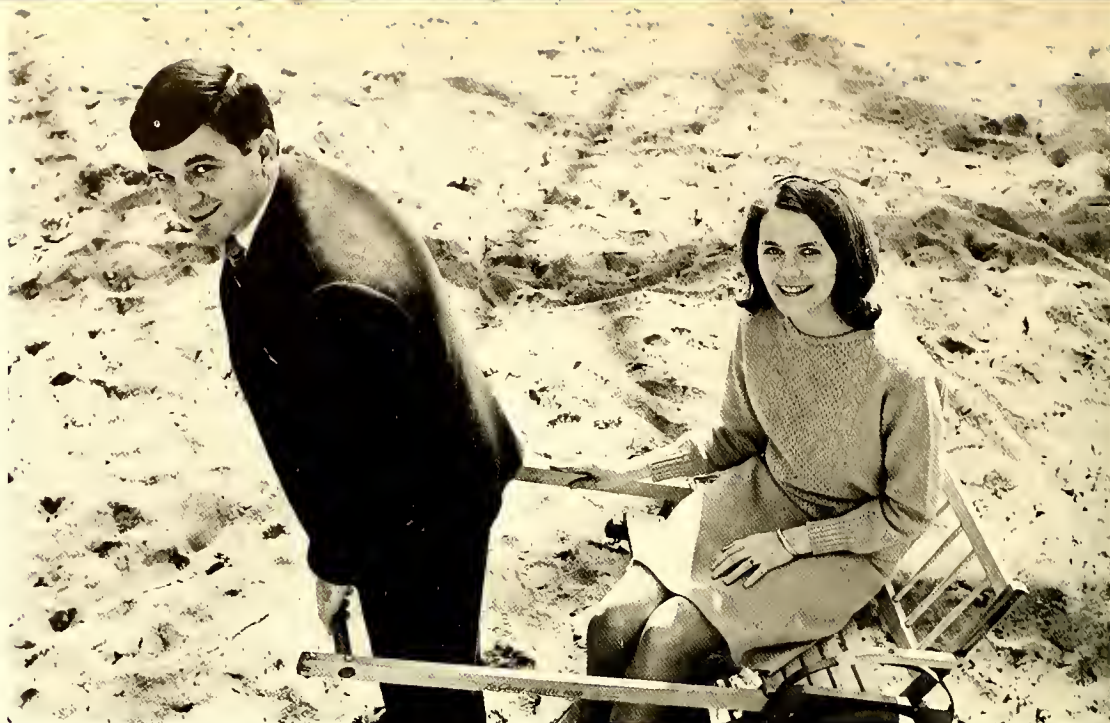

Its main purpose is to stimulate an interest in language, to help students acquire a more intimate knowledge of the people whose languages are being studied, and to make a contribution toward a better understanding between their country and ours.

The Language Lab is used by all language students to improve their pronunciation.

Nan Holbrook Elected Outstanding Female Student

Nan Holbrook was elected Outstanding Female Student at Mitchell by the faculty for this year. Besides being editor of THE CIRCLE, she was a member of the choir, French Club and Sigma Pi Alpha. She was also secretary of the Woman's Recreational Association, played on the volleyball and basketball teams, and received the Tennis Medal for 1966-67.

Nan was selected Miss Circle 1968, November Sweetheart for the "Circle K", October Student of the Month for the CAMPUS COMMENTS by the faculty and student body, and a member of Who's Who in American Junior Colleges. She plans to attend Wake Forest University or High Point College and major in sociology for social work.

Charles Hauser Elected Outstanding Male Student

Charles Hauser was elected by the faculty as Outstanding Male Student at Mitchell for this year. Besides serving as president of the student body, he held the office of vice-president of the "Circle K" and was a member of the Spanish Club.

Charles was selected as Student of the Month in December for the CAMPUS COMMENTS by the faculty and student body, and Rotarian Student of the Month. He is a member of Who's Who in American Junior Colleges and plans to attend Lenoir Rhyne where he will major in History.

Faculty Selects Outstanding Students

Loretta Murr, co-chief cheerleader and business manager for the annual, was elected May Queen.

Philip Greene, president of the day students and a member of the Mitchellaires, sits and chats with Mrs. Morphis.

Kaye Jolly was secretary of Phi Theta Kappa and a member of the choir.

Mrs. Rebecca Blackwelder, mother of five children, was a marshal at graduation her freshman year and a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Mrs. Norma Morrison was a member of Phi Theta Kappa and a marshal at graduation her freshman year but she still found time for her husband and child.

Students Elect

Doris Pigg was elected Christmas Queen by the student body and rode in the Christmas parade with the other representatives who made up her court.

Jennie Johnston was crowned Valentine Queen at the freshman sponsored dance held in the Student Union.

"Born Free, Live Free, Stay Free" is the theme of THE CIRCLE 1968. This year has been an unsettled year — a year of rebellious students fighting for freedom. But Mitchell has given us many freedoms that we overlook and take for granted — the freedom to speak and write, to vote, to study and enrich our lives, to worship and to build for the future. As we leave Mitchell we take a part of it with us wherever we go. Many of us will go on to another school or to work and then some will be in Vietnam fighting to protect the world's freedom. The world awaits a new generation to lead them and we are the leaders of tomorrow.

I would like to leave one thought with you — "Your freedom ends where others' begins." We are born free, and we are given the privileges in order to live free but we must yet learn how to stay free!

Without the help, patience and co-operation of many people there would be no CIRCLE 1968. You can see most of their pictures on the two CIRCLE pages in the Student Life Section. But a special thanks must go to John Vernon, Colonel Spencer, Jane Chilton, Mrs. Catherine Cline, Loretta Murr, Tom Vogel, Mike Gilbert, Jerry Ammons, Mary Alice Sherrill, Mike Callahan, Mike Van Ness, Rudy, George LaMothe, the students, faculty and administration of Mitchell College, the community of Statesville, and Hunter Publishing Company, especially to Rod Hunter.
